»»» Horizon Europe Information Day

On 29-30 January 2024, the largest event dedicated to Horizon Europe in Poland will be held. The National Contact Point NCBiR invites you to the "Broad Horizon" Information Day dedicated to calls for the years 2024-2025.

Participation in the event is free of charge, however, prior registration is required. Detailed information will soon be available on the NCBiR website.

»»» NCN - Planned schedule of competitions in 2024

The National Science Centre presents the planned schedule of competitions for the year 2024. Detailed information regarding the conditions, procedures, and commencement dates of individual competitions will be made available on the official NCN website after approval by the relevant resolutions of the National Science Centre Council.

It is worth noting that the schedule does not encompass multilateral competitions announced by international networks of agencies funding scientific research, in which the NCN serves as a member. Announcements regarding these competitions and their previews will be regularly updated on the NCN website throughout the year, in accordance with decisions made by participating agencies.
