Nauki

The tenth anniversary edition of the National Science Center Days will be held on May 15 and 16 in Bydgoszcz. These are two days full of meetings, workshops, discussion panels and lectures, during which scientists from a given region and employees dealing with administrative support for research projects can directly ask NCN representatives about all details related to applying for research funding at the NCN, its implementation and settlement.

Admission to the events taking place on the first day of the NCN is open, and prior registration is required for the workshops. Registration is scheduled to start on April 3.
